Background

Kelly Kyle, born to Arthur and Debra Kyle, was the poster child for her parents multi-billion dollar weapons manufacturing company, Kyle Industries. Kelly was never interested in the families business, as it took away from the time her parents could spend with her. When she was 15 years old, her parents disappeared without a trace, leaving her as the sole heir and majority shareholder of Kyle Industries. Over the years as she grew up, Kelly dedicated all of her time and resources to finding her parents. As she traveled the world chasing leads, she developed into one of the most feared martial artists in the world. Gaining knowledge from every corner of the globe, she hit the peak of what her human body would allow. With this, she received the invitation to the Stride Tournament, entering to hopefully discover the truth behind her parents disappearance.
